Children's Area Policy, Approved October 2010

The children's areas within the libraries provide space for collections, programs, and services especially for children and caregivers. These areas are available for use by patrons accessing children's materials or for children and caregivers who are utilizing these spaces, collections, programs, or services. Patrons not included in these categories may be required to leave children's areas and utilize other areas in the library.